

Auto HR saves time, money & worry. We might even save your company.

Founded in 1993, Auto HR is a human resources consulting firm that specializes in helping companies improve their HR processes and procedures, while reducing the risk of employment-related lawsuits and EEOC charges. We work closely with employers to act proactively and create welcoming workplace environments that adhere to complex employment laws and regulations.

Our consultants have extensive backgrounds in human resource compliance and carry the PHR and SPHR certifications as recognized by the Society of Human Resource Managers (SHRM). Although we are not attorneys, our practical experience in addressing day-to-day employment issues helps you avoid or resolve most labor questions and concerns before they become a crisis.

Auto HR prides itself on direct answers and prompt service. During the past two decades, we have assisted thousands of managers resolve the day-to-day employee issues they face. We currently provide services in a majority of states across the country, with a diverse client base that includes retail, medical, call center, insurance, restaurants, fast-food chains, transportation, automobile and RV dealerships, and numerous other industries.

Let Auto HR be your answer and resource for today's complex personnel challenges. We can act as your HR department or support your HR leadership with our 24-hour availability, knowledge of employment law and over a decade of experience.
